TERMS AND CONDITIONS

TERMS AND CONDITIONS REGARDING RESERVATIONS, CANCELLATIONS, CHANGES, AND PAYMENTS

OPTIONAL RESERVATION

We would be happy to place an optional reservation for you to ensure you secure the desired accommodation. This non-binding reservation remains valid for one week initially, unless otherwise agreed. If it becomes apparent that we can definitively reserve the accommodation you have placed on option for third parties sooner—i.e., before the option expiry date—we will contact you immediately. We then ask you to decide within 24 hours whether you wish to confirm the reservation or let it expire. Without further notice, the option will expire after the expiry date. An option can be extended in consultation and subject to availability, provided that this extension is requested by you in writing or via email within the option period and is confirmed by us.

EVENT INSURANCE

To insure yourself against costs in the event of a forced cancellation of your reservation, you can take out event insurance. If something happens that prevents your event from taking place or requires it to be postponed, the insurance company will compensate you for the financial loss you suffer. Please inquire about event insurance with your insurance company.

FINAL RESERVATION

The accommodation is considered definitively reserved once we have received a signed copy of the reservation confirmation sent to you by the stated expiry date. If significant changes occur after signing the reservation confirmation, we will send you a new reservation confirmation for signature. If we have not received a signed reservation confirmation by the stated expiry date, Amrâth Airport Hotel Rotterdam reserves the right to re-rent the reserved spaces to third parties.

The final invoice will be sent after the stay and must be paid within fourteen days of the invoice date. Without a valid payment guarantee, the costs must be paid on-site at the hotel.

GUARANTEED GUEST NUMBER

We will maintain the number of guests stated on the reservation agreement at the time of signing as the guaranteed number. The guaranteed number applies to packages, food and beverages, and all other items mentioned in the reservation agreement that are designated as such. The final number of guests must be provided no later than 1 day before arrival by 12:00 PM if this differs from the confirmed guaranteed number in the reservation agreement.

Reducing the number of participants

By 5% free of charge at the time of signing: From the moment of signing up to 2 days before arrival by 12:00 PM. This reduction applies to the previously reduced guaranteed number more than 2 days before arrival, or, if no previous reduction of the guaranteed number has taken place, to the original guaranteed number at the time of signing.
